Respondents.

The Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation Commission hereby moves to admit into evidence in the above-captioned proceeding the affidavit and its affixed Exhibit A that were filed in this matter by Respondents on December 9, 1998, a copy of which is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit S-184. Pursuant to A.A.C. R14-3-109(Q), the grounds for this motion are as follow.

I.
BACKGROUND

On October 23, 1998, an undated affidavit by Alwin Yam marked as Exhibit S-183 was admitted

1 into evidence in this proceeding by stipulated motion of the parties following its production to the
2 Division by Respondents. Hearing Transcript, Vol. XIX, p. 3193-94. At a post-hearing procedural
3 conference on November 4, 1998, the Hearing Officer ordered further production of records by 4 Respondents pursuant to pending pre-hearing requests by the Division for documents. Procedural
5 Conference Transcript, pp. 27-28. On December 9, 1998, Respondents filed another affidavit by Alwin
6 Yam, with affixed Exhibit A, dated December 2, 1998. This second Yam affidavit and attachment
7 contained information not previously disclosed by Respondents. The Division believes this information is
8 evidence relevant to facts that are of consequence to the determination of this matter. Insofar as it was not
9 produced before or during the hearing pursuant to the Division's pending requests, it is reasonable and
10 appropriate for the affidavit and its attachment to be now entered into evidence as Exhibit S-184 in order
11 to supplement the record. Moreover, even if no production requests remained pending following the 12 hearing, A.A.C. R14-3-109(G) permits the Hearing Officer to consent to the introduction of further
13 evidence even after a party "has rested his case."

14 The Division has conferred with counsel for all Respondents except James Charles Simmons, Jr.,
15 and that counsel has informed the undersigned of no objection to the admission into evidence of Exhibit
16 S-184. The Division has not conferred with Respondent Simmons, who has failed to appear at or 17 participate in the hearing and post-hearing proceedings.

II.
CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Division now moves to admit Exhibit S-184 into evidence in this proceeding.

DATED this 3rd day of March, 1999.

AFFIDAVIT OF ALWIN YAM

ALWIN YAM, upon his oath, does depose and state:

1. My name is Alwin Yam.
2. I am the Chief Administrator for Eastern Vanguard Forex Limited ("EVFL").
3. To Fai Cheng and Scott Yuen, who is the husband of Jean Yuen, were the source of the funds provided to Forex Investment Services Corporation ("FISC") from EVFL in 1996.
4. These funds were loans to FISC from a trading account jointly held by Mr. Cheng and Mr. Yuen with EVFL.
5. In 1996, when funds were needed to support the operation of FISC, Mr. Cheng and Mr. Yuen frequently asked EVFL to wire transfer funds from their trading accounts to FISC'S Wells Fargo bank account.
6. Attached as Exhibit A is a series of statements for Mr. Cheng and Mr. Yuen's account reflecting margin withdrawals that were ultimately wire transferred to FISC. Exhibit A consists of the following:
 - a. A March 27, 1996 statement reflecting a $20,000 margin withdrawal;
 - b. A May 22, 1996 statement reflecting a $20,000 margin withdrawal;
 - c. A June 28, 1996 statement reflecting a $20,000 margin withdrawal;
 - d. An August 1, 1996 statement reflecting a $20,000 margin withdrawal;
 - e. An August 7, 1996 statement reflecting a $20,000 margin withdrawal;
 - f. An October 21, 1996 statement reflecting a $10,000 margin withdrawal;
 - g. A November 5, 1996 statement reflecting a $20,000 margin withdrawal; and
 - h. A December 4, 1996 statement reflecting a $15,000 margin withdrawal.
7. All of the items listed in paragraph 6 correspond to certain deposits made in FISC's account in 1996.
8. EVFL does not have records related to any of the other deposits to FISC's account in 1996.
9. In 1996, however, virtually all of the deposits into FISC's account were from Mr. Yuen and Mr. Cheng.

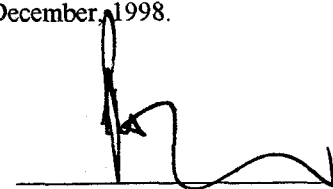

10. EVFL has no records, in addition to the records previously provided to the Division, related to the transfers of funds from EVFL's San Francisco Citibank account to the Marine Midland Bank account in New York City.
11. The vast majority of the funds that were transferred to Marine Midland Bank were the result of trading losses sustained by FISC's investors.
12. When losses in investors' accounts reach a certain level, the dealers with whom we place our trades ask us to provide them with additional margin.
13. EVFL usually forwards the margin to the dealers and then replenishes the funds it transferred with funds from the particular accounts that sustained the losses.
14. When EVFL would withdraw funds from the San Francisco account, it would also withdraw funds reflecting the fees to which it was entitled under its servicing agreement with FISC.
15. Exhibit S-73 is a copy of the servicing agreement between FISC and EVFL.
16. The servicing agreement governs the transfers from EVFL to FISC in 1997.
17. This agreement provided that EVFL would pay FISC $20,000 a month, plus $50 per settlement unit.
18. EVFL would receive $20 if the trade were a day trade and $30 if the trade were an overnight trade.
19. EVFL hoped that FISC would execute a sufficient amount of monthly trades so that both FISC and EVFL would profit from the servicing agreement.
20. Unfortunately, FISC was very unsuccessful.
21. The income earned by EVFL in 1997 as a result of the trades executed by FISC did not remotely approach the nearly $300,000 that EVFL provided FISC during that year.
22. In fact, EVFL lost over $200,000 in 1997 as a result of its servicing agreement with FISC.
23. For example, Exhibit S-159 indicates that EVFL paid FISC $140,954 from April through August, 1997.
24. If this exhibit is correct and FISC executed 958 trades during this time frame, EVFL's income pursuant to the servicing agreement would have been between $19,160 (958 day trades x $20 a trade) and $28,740 (958 overnight trades x $30 a trade).
25. These figures do not approach the $140,954 paid to FISC.
26. If FISC had not terminated its operations in December, 1997, EVFL would, in all likelihood, have terminated the servicing agreement.
27. Because of the losses EVFL suffered in connection with FISC's operation, none of the officers, directors or principals of EVFL received any direct and/or indirect benefit from FISC's operation.
28. Any compensation EVFL's principals received in 1997 would have been from sources other than FISC.

29. EVFL has no records of any compensation to any of its officers, directors and/or principals as a result of FISC's operations because there was no compensation.
30. Eastern Vanguard Group Limited ("EVGL") is a holding company that holds EVFL.
31. EVGL received no direct and/or indirect benefit from EVFL and/or from any of the accounting transfers at issue in this case.
32. EVFL has received no direct or indirect benefit from EVGL and/or any of the accounting transfers at issue in this case.
33. None of EVGL's and/or EVFL's principals received any direct and/or indirect benefit as a result of any of the accounting transfers at issue in this case.
